

If you approve, your ruling should not be a lesser standard than states have adopted, like the state of Indiana. Also, by using the State of Indiana Telephone Privacy Law, I have seen my telemarketing calls received drop from an average of 15 per week to less than 1. It has allowed me to spend more quality time with my family. Thanks for your attention to this matter.